The FA Seven (7) day Approach Rule – c2.

- A manager wishing to speak to a player about joining their team, when a player is already registered with another team, MUST ask their Club Secretary to write to the Secretary of the players current club giving SEVEN (7) days' formal written notice of their intension to speak to the player.
- This written notice must be sent by special delivery or recorded post or a written acknowledgment otherwise obtained from the secretary or chairman of the player's current club. Emails may be used provided a receipt of acknowledgement is also obtained. The Registration Secretary MUST be copied.
- Once this has been done, the player can be spoken to on or after the eighth day and the player must be registered on or before the 21st Day.
- If the player declines your offer to leave their current team and join your team then you cannot approach them again in the same season.
- You can only approach one player in the same team at any one time.
- You cannot approach another player in the same team within 28 days.

Once the 7-day Approach rule has been followed, the club/player can then complete a League Transfer Form.

NOTE A TRANSFER FEE IS PAYABLE TO THE LEAGUE OF £30

NOTE RULE 8j Transfer of Players still applies
